

WS 2019 - Ring Vorlesung / Lecture series:
Climate Change and Climate Crisis – Lectures for Future (5 ECTS)

Time: Thursday, 15:00-16:30

Location: Hall 50, Main Building of the University of Vienna

Program:

3.10. Daniel Dahm (Berlin): Co-Evolution zwischen Anthroposphäre und Biogeosphäre. Anlass zum Aufstand für Lebendigkeit

Johannes Daniel Dahm is a German geographer, ecologist, activist, consultant and entrepreneur. As a transdisciplinary scientist he works in the fields of sustainability and development research, ecological economics and ecological creation of values, future of work, plurality and diversity of life.

<https://www.worldfuturecouncil.org/p/j-daniel-dahm/>

10.10. Ulrich Brand (Wien): Why do SDGs fail (so far)? - The Imperial Mode of Living as Major Obstacle for Adequate Climate Politics

Ulrich Brand is Professor for International Politics at the Department of Political Science at the University of Vienna.

<https://www.univie.ac.at/intpol/en/page/2/>

17.10. Angela Kallhoff (Wien): Climate Justice

Angela Kallhoff is Professor of Ethics with special emphasis on Applied Ethics at the Department of Philosophy at the University of Vienna

<https://homepage.univie.ac.at/angela.kallhoff/wordpress/>

31.10. Thomas Glade (Wien). Environmental Disaster and Risk Management

Thomas Glade is Professor of Physical Geography at the Department of Geography and Regional Research

<https://homepage.univie.ac.at/thomas.glade/>

7.11. Marion Borderon (Wien): Climate change and migration. State of knowledge and critical reflections

Marion Borderon holds a PostDoc-position at the Department of Geography and Regional Research

https://ucris.univie.ac.at/portal/de/persons/marion-borderon\(e4631498-1060-42b2-aea1-560de0ad7b44\)/publications.html/publications.html)

14.11. Michael Wagreich (Wien): The geological Anthropocene and its definition

Michael Wagreich is Professor at the Department of Geodynamics and Sedimentology
<https://geologie.univie.ac.at/sedimentologie/wissenschaftliche-mitarbeiter/michael-wagreich/>

21.11. Eva Horn (Wien): Climate in the Anthropocene

Eva Horn is Professor at the Department of German Studies at the University of Vienna.
<https://www.univie.ac.at/germanistik/eva-horn/>

28.11. Gerhard Herndl (Wien): The ocean and climate change: future ocean scenarios and feedback to global climate

Gerhard Herndl ist Professor for Marine Biology at the Department of Limnology and Bio-Oceanography at the University of Vienna
<https://ufind.univie.ac.at/en/person.html?id=1960>

5.12. Christa Schleper (Wien): Nitrogen pollution and climate change

Christa Schleper is Professor and Head of Department of Economics and Systems Biology
<https://ufind.univie.ac.at/en/person.html?id=32275>

12.12. Helga Kromp-Kolb (Wien): Scientific reticence in climate issues

Helga Kromp-Kolb is Professor Emerita at the University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences in Vienna
<https://boku.ac.at/personen/person/5A0B7F74083C59CB/>

9.1. Sigrid Stagl (Wien): Climate Crisis and Economics

Sigrid Stagl is Professor of Economics at the Department of Socioeconomics, Ecological Economics at The Business University Vienna.
<https://bach.wu-wien.ac.at/d/research/ma/2524/>

16.1. Richard Staley (Cambridge) Climatic eras and the history of debate in the climate sciences and discourse

Richard Staley is Hans Rausing Lecturer in History and Philosophy of Science at the Department of History and Philosophy of Science at the University of Cambridge.
<https://www.people.hps.cam.ac.uk/index/teaching-officers/staley>

23.1. Tarja Knuuttila (Wien): Climate modeling - A philosophy of science perspective

Tarja Knuuttila ist Professor of Philosophy of Science at the Department of Philosophy at the University of Vienna.
<http://tarjaknuuttila.com/>

30.1. Martin Kusch (Wien): Scientific Expertise in the Age of Post-Truth

Martin Kusch is Professor of Philosophy of Science and Epistemology at the Department of Philosophy at the University of Vienna.
<https://homepage.univie.ac.at/martin.kusch/>